YEGGMEN LOOT 2 POSTOFFICES

Break Into Carthage and Charlottesville Offices, Stealing Over $140 in Stamps and Cash.

ESCAPE IN STOLEN OUTFIT

Blew Safe Open at Carthage, Noise
Awakening Several People--Stole Tools at Blacksmith Shop.

The postoffice at Carthage in Ripley township and at Charlottesville, which is just over the northwestern Rush county line in Hancock county, and about six miles almost directly west of Carthage, were robbed some time last night or early this morning. So far the local authorities have been unable to get any trace of the yeggmen. The horse and buggy which they stole to make good their escape was found early this morning northeast of Carthage in the Shiloh neighborhood in Center township.

At Carthage the burglars blew the safe open and obtained about $140 in stamps and cash. At Charlottesville there is no safe, the postmaster taking charge of the money each night. They overlooked forty cents in the money drawer, but took a large quantity of stamps. The postmaster is unable to determine the amount as he did not know how large a supply he had on hand.

Enos Coffin, Carthage postmaster, opened up the office this morning and had not been there long until Tom Smith, a resident of Carthage, called his attention to the fact that the back door was open. An investigation followed and showed that the safe blowers had been at work.

Walter Newlin and Ed N. Hill, both of whom have rooms over the Carthage bank, were awakened by a noise about two o'clock this morning but gave the incident little attention. Newlin has a young horse and it was thought that the animal was kicking. Ed Henley, a Carthage grocer, also heard a noise about the same time this morning, but gave the interruption little thought. People on Main street heard a horse and buggy going at a rapid gait, pass about that time this morning, northward bound. For that reason it is believed that the same party of yeggmen went on to Charlottesville, where they robbed the postoffice.

The robbers stole a horse, buggy and harness from the barn of Willard Minor in Carthage, in which they escaped. Mr. Minor telephoned Sheriff Bebout this morning and communicated with all of the police in this section of the State. Before noon he received word that his outfit, none the worse for the wear, had been found by Simpson Dennis in Center township, a few miles northeast of Carthage. Two robes, which do not belong to Mr. Minor, were found in the buggy. They may be used in locating the yeggmen.

That the yeggmen were amateurs is the general belief in Carthage, since it was learned later in the day that they broke into the blacksmith shop, belonging to James Carfield, to get tools to do their work. The tools were found at the postoffice.

At Charlottesville the yeggmen entered the postoffice building through a window. They forced the window open and left it that way. There was evidence that the thieves made a very hurried examination of the office contents, overlooking the money drawer which contained forty cents.

Red hair is of that color, says a scientific journal, because it has in its composition a larger proportion of sulphur than black hair.

NORRIS HEADS OFFICIALS

Great Sachem of This City Attends Red Men District Meet.

The Grand Lodge officers of the State, headed by Great Sachem O. C. Norris of this city attended the district meeting of the Red Men in Spencer yesterday and participated in the exercises. Last night degrees were conferred on thirty candidates. At midnight a banquet was served in the Knights of Pythias lodge rooms. This district comprises Monroe, Brown, Clay, Vigo, Morgan, Putnam and Owen counties, and forty-five tribes are included.

SPURIOUS DIMES IN CIRCULATION

Are of the 1903 Mold and Almost Perfect Specimens--Made of Composition Metal.

HAVE ONLY SMALL DEFECT

It has been discovered that some counterfeit dimes are in circulation in the various parts of the country, and although they are of the 1903 mold, they are of recent make. The dimes are probably made of white metal aluminum, and babbitt metal, and when tarnished has a regular old silver color. The dimes have a ring to them, but it is not the true ring of good metal and the difference can easily be detected. The coins have one defect in make and that is an almost microscopic mold mark where the metal was cut off when the molds were opened.

FERGUSON WAS SENT BACK TO JAIL

Came Before Mayor in a Terrible Plight and Was Imprisoned to Sober Up.

COURT HAD SOME SYMPATHY

Greely Ferguson, arrested Wednesday night, who was arraigned before Mayor Black yesterday afternoon on the charge of drunkenness, and who was too much intoxicated to answer the questions put to him, was brought up again this afternoon and fined five dollars and costs for the offense. He was taken back to jail to sober up. The mayor took that action as he thought it best for Ferguson. He came up to the mayor's court in a terrible plight. He was ill and scarcely able to walk. The mayor said that he imposed a light fine only out of sympathy for Ferguson. The tailor said he was not drunk when he first came before the court, but he was at that time so much under the influence of liquor that he could not sign his own name. Ferguson swore that he did not have a drink the other night. The mayor told him that he did not believe a word he uttered but that he would be lenient one time to see if it was not possible to sober him up and cure him of the drink habit.

REPORT FAVORABLE.

The Yarling Senate bill, to provide for a superior court in Shelby county, to be presided over by the judge of the Marion Superior court No. 1, was reported for passage with minor amendments in the House yesterday.

SAY INJUNCTION RUMOR IS FALSE

"Wets" Assert That no Action Will be Taken in Courts to Prevent Election.

"DRYS" ARE READY TO FIGHT IT

Are Not Worrying About Who Will Prepare Voting Places--Will Prepare For That.

The rumor has been current since yesterday afternoon that the "wets" would file an injunction against the holding of the election. Local attorneys, who, it is said, are employed by the liquor forces, deny that any such move has ever been anticipated. The "drys" are prepared for such a legal fight and have notified the court that they will be ready to appear at any time, either night or day, to argue such an action. It is asserted that the only reason the "wets" could have for such an action, is that they might delay the election, but nothing more.

The question as to who shall erect the election booths, prepare the rooms with election paraphernalia and arrange everything at the voting places is not worrying the heads of the "drys" very much. Their attorneys argue the new law provides that the general election law shall be in force in all cases where they are not other conditions specified. In a city election, it is the duty of the city officials to see that the voting places are prepared. There are many "drys" who have asserted that they will furnish the wagons and the laborers to arrange every detail.

The "drys" will close the active campaign Sunday with two big mass meetings at the Main Street Christian church, which, it is expected, will attract a large gathering.

WATSON GRIPPE HAS PECULIAR ATTACHMENT FOR HIS FRIENDS

It is no Respector of Persons, But Has For Its Victim, Most Everyone Who Calls.

CAPT. GOWDY WILL NOT CALL

Watson gripe is a particular brand of la gripe which may be labeled as such from now on until eternity. James E. Watson has been confined the greater part of the time for the past week or ten days to his home at the corner of Main and Eighth streets with a new and peculiar species of la gripe. It seems especially contagious, since nearly everyone with whom he has come in contact have been threatened and many have had a slight tinge of the to-be-avoided ailment. Practically everyone has been inoculated with the germ except the members of his family.

John K. Gowdy has heard rumors of the persistent nature of the Watson gripe to attack its victim's friends and he will not even venture toward the Watson home. He has absolutely refused to call on his warm friend and political ally even though he be in a very serious condition. He fears the gripe.

John A. Tittsworth has called on Mr. Watson during his illness and immediately began to feel the effects

'IN AND OUT FEE' LAW IS HELD VOID

Decision, Which Has Been Awaited by Local Officials For Several Months is Made.

MORRIS GIVES ASSENTING VOTE

Will Have Effect in Several Cases in Rush County--Statutory Limits Question Invalid.

An opinion, which Sheriff Clata Bebout, former Rush county sheriffs, and, in fact, former and present county sheriffs all over the State have awaited with interest for several months came yesterday, when the Indianapolis Supreme court affirmed the judgment of the Marion county circuit court holding that the act of March 20, 1909, fixing the fees to be charged by sheriffs, is not a valid enactment of the legislature, but is void, and the former law governing the fees to be charged by sheriffs is the law governing their fees. The former law provided that the "in and out fees" belonged to the county rather than the sheriff.

Douglas Morris of this city, former judge of the Rush circuit court and elected judge of the Supreme court from this district in the last election figured in a decision yesterday for the first time since he has been on the bench. He delivered the opinion of the court, which was backed by three other Supreme court judges, while Judge Jordan handed down a dissenting opinion.

The decision will have effect in local cases as it will mean that Sheriff Bebout will not be allowed to retain those fees, which he has been collecting in the past. It is likely that courts would hold that William King, former sheriff, would have to return

WELLMAN WILL PROBATED

Real and Personal Property Goes to John Holman.

The will of the late Orris P. Wellman, who died last Saturday evening was admitted to probate in the Rush circuit court today. The provisions of the will are that all of the property of the deceased, both real and personal, should go to his nephew, John Holman, of Noble township. The will which was probated, was written January 12, of this year. It is said that Mr. Wellman has had at least seven or eight wills written in the last few years.

MERCHANTS LIKE NEW STREET LIGHT

Lit Last Night For First Time and Attracted no Little Attention Favorable Comment Heard.

ANXIOUS TO INSTALL OTHERS

The decorative street light at the corner of Main and Second streets, which was lighted last night for the first time, attracted no little attention. Favorable comment was heard on all sides and some expressed their opinion that the light and pedestal was far superior to the one used in Indianapolis and other cities. "The light will attract more attention to the city than anything that has yet been done," said one merchant, and his opinion was versed by many others. The merchants are anxious to get all the lights installed as they believe great benefits will be derived.

TAKEN BEFORE JURY TO TESTIFY

Cordia Martin, Vance Deery and Dan Williams Appear Before Hancock County Body.

CURIOUS THROG AT STATION

Question as to Who Gets $600 Reward, Offered by Bank, is Leading One.

It was a curious crowd that greeted Cordia Martin and Vance Deery, convicted and sentenced for robbing the New Palestine bank, and Dan Williams, an alleged accomplice in other robberies, at Greenfield yesterday afternoon, when the three men were taken there by Indianapolis officers to testify before the Hancock county grand jury, which was called in session to investigate robberies mentioned in the confession made by Vance Deery in Indianapolis. So far nothing has developed from the investigation.

Several New Palestine parties were also called for the further investigation of the bank robbery there in which Williams was mentioned by Deery as having knowledge of the same. The Marion county officers remained to take Deery and Martin back with them, but Williams will probably remain in Greenfield, as the Marion county officials have no charge against him.

The question of who is to receive the reward offered for information leading to the arrest of the New Palestine bank robbers, is something of a puzzle. The conviction of Cordia Martin and the confession of Vance Deery makes the matter of paying the reward the next step in the case.

Michael Quigley, a druggist of Greenfield, and Charles Patterson were probably the first to look with suspicion on Deery and Martin. Quigley saw the men in the terminal station at Indianapolis the night the bank was robbed, and from the fact that they had been in custody in Greenfield in connection with petty thefts, he connected them with the New Palestine job. Patterson, however, had observed the freedom with which Martin and Deery spent money about Indianapolis, and is said to have notified the mayor of Greenfield who at once informed the Indianapolis police. Deery was arrested within an hour.

The Greenfield police got into the case when the mayor ordered Martin's arrest there five weeks ago. Sheriff Cox also had a hand in the work, but the arrest was made by merchant policeman Quinn Johnson. It is also hinted that there is a woman in the case, and that she gave the first information leading to the arrest.

FIELD EXAMINERS HERE

Two Men Are Delving Into Records of Recorder's Office.

Two field examiners, sent out by the State Board of Accounts, have been in the court house for the past ten days and have been working with such "gum-shoe" alacrity that their presence has never been noted. H. A. Barrett of Greenfield and William White of Noblesville are the names they answer to and they are busily engaged delving into the business of former Rush county recorders. It is said that they will be here for several weeks before they complete the work which they have in hand.

Have You Asked Your Grocer About Golden Sun Coffee

Why not do it today? It may save you 10 to 20 cents on every pound of coffee you buy.

There are five different blends—a flavor to suit every taste

Ask your Grocer to show you the five packages of Golden Sun Coffee, each a different blend, put up to suit the five different coffee tastes. Coffee prices are fixed by the blend. Very probably the flavor you prefer is the least expensive. Few people care for the highest priced blends. Most people pay too much for coffee because they don't know of a Standard Blend—always the same this week and next.

The coffee you like one time is not the same the next time you order. This experience with coffee every grocer knows. That is why experienced, conscientious grocers are so enthusiastic over the five different blends of Golden Sun Coffee for it enables them to give each customer the coffee that suits each taste—and to guarantee each following package just as rich and pure and smoothly blended as the first Golden Sun Coffee is put up by the greatest coffee experts in the world.

Each of the five blends is the product of the choicest, best ripened coffee berries, from plantations controlled by the Woolson Spice Company.

Each picking used is perfect. Every package put up is uniformly good. The roasting and blending is done by experts and the packing—in hermetically sealed, specially prepared bags—is done just at the right moment so that the rich, natural volatile oil—which is the coffee food—cannot escape.

Coffee kept in open bins or sold by irresponsible peddlers fails in richness, purity and strength and can never come up to the standard of particular people.

Your grocer will show you the Table of Tastes so that you can readily select the flavor you like best. Ask his opinion of Golden Sun Coffee—ask today so that you may have your best cup of coffee for tomorrow's breakfast.

What Our Neighbors Are Talking About

IT'S MUTUAL, THANK YOU.

(Greensburg Democrat.)

Shelby county is now quite likely to win in her desire to be separated from Rush county now in the same judicial district. It is suggested that Decatur or Fayette be taken into the judicial circuit with Rush county. Let it be Fayette, then. Decatur county is pretty well satisfied as it is and former political affiliations with Rush county have convinced people here that our present bonds are more pleasant than others we could take unto ourselves. Please leave us alone, we are doing well.

FEWER RED CROSS SEALS SOLD

The sales of Red Cross Christmas seals in Indiana for the holiday season will fall short of the number sold during the previous year, according to Lannes McPhetridge, manager of the State bureau, who closed his office in the Federal building Monday. Reports have been received from the entire State with the exception of Terre Haute, Crawfordsville, Evansville and about forty small towns, showing the sale slightly more than 600,000 seals.

It is the expectation of the State workers when the missing towns are heard from the total sales will run to 700,000, making the net sales $700,000. If the expectations are realized in full the sales will run about 20,000 behind the record of 1909, when 720,000 were sold, netting $7000. The sales to lodges last year was just one-third what they were the previous year.

AMUSEMENTS

The Palace theater offers a good program for the evening in the Etna film, "A Cattleman's Daughter." It is a western story, full of interest and excitement. Earl Robertson will sing the illustrated song "Be My Sweetheart."

The Star Grand offers an American film tonight entitled "The Bonanza King." It tells the story of the inevitable results which must accrue from over indulgence in liquor. The scenes are all pictorially and historically perfect. Mr. Edward will sing "Sweet Sixteen."

The Vaudet will offer a big double program tonight, showing two complete reels of pictures. The first film, "A Child's Judgment" is an Imp. It is a story of strong dramatic worth, picturing with great effect a tale of more than common interest. "The Surgeon's Daughter" is a Solax film. It is a dramatic story. A new illustrated song will be on the program.

After a tremendously successful tour of seven years throughout the country, William A. Brady is again presenting Wright Lorimer and his production, and this young star and his company of over one hundred people will begin an engagement of one week at the Murat theater, in Indianapolis, commencing next Monday, February 26, with matinees on Wednesday and Saturday, in one of the most magnificent spectacles ever staged, "The Shepherd King." The drama is founded on the biblical story of David, the ideal hero of the human race, from the time that he left his father's flock at Bethlehem, until he became King of Israel, at the death of Saul. In the beauty of its scenery and the splendor of its mounting, "The Shepherd King" shares with "Ben Hur" the distinction of being the finest stage production that the stage has ever known. Especially are settings notable for their historic value.

The play opens on the sunny fields and hillsides of Judea, the home of Jesse, the father of David. The hay is in the fields, the sheep are led to the fold, the women servants weave cloth and the brothers go and come about their rustic labors. Suddenly down a flight of rocky steps descend a group of royal personages. Prince Jonathon, like young Achilles, Princess Mical, and Phati, a prince. There is an immediate quickening of pulses when the royal blood of Saul's court touches the simple life of David's home. The note of the play has been struck and it proceeds on a high key of court and camp all the more potent in contrast to the quiet pastoral opening. Brought to Saul's camp to beguile him from his melancholy, he becomes the center of all the plot and intrigue of the corrupt surroundings. The familiar episode of David and Goliath, wherein the shepherd king, with only a sling in hand, goes forth to meet the Giant of the Philistines, is strikingly introduced, and the incantations of the notorious Witch of Endor are features of the spectacle. The end is happily brought about when Saul and Jonathan are slain.

Lesson IX.—First Quarter, For Feb. 26, 1911.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, I Kings xxi, 11-20. Memory Verses, 17-19—Golden Text, Luke xii, 15—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

In our last lesson Elijah was commissioned to anoint Elisha as prophet in his stead. He found him plowing with the twelfth of twelve yoke of oxen and cast his mantle upon him. Elisha bade farewell to his father and mother, prepared a feast for the people, cooking the flesh of a yoke of oxen with the instruments of the oxen, thus burning the bridge behind him, and went after Elijah and ministered unto him (chapter xix, 19-21), and we shall see a sequel to such whole heartedness in our next lesson.

The story of chapter xx we shall have for a lesson on March 19; therefore we pass it by for the present, and Elijah does not appear in it.

In the lesson of today we come to a story of the greatest possible cruel heartlessness on the part of Ahab and Jezebel, with a prediction of the doom of each from the Lord through Elijah, which was, like all the Lord's predictions, literally fulfilled.

A man called Naboth had a vineyard hard by the palace of Ahab, which the king coveted, as he said, for a garden of herbs because it was near his house. The king offered him the worth of it in money or a better vineyard in its stead, but Naboth refused to let the king have it, saying, "The Lord forbid it me that I should give the inheritance of my fathers unto thee" (verse 3). It is refreshing to meet a man who seeks no favors from and has no fear of even a king.

What a contrast to Naboth is this despicable king, who, because he cannot have what he wants, goes home and to bed, turns away his face and will not eat! How contemptibly small some great men are, and how noble are some in lowly circumstances! A vineyard makes me think of the vine of John xv, and Naboth's clinging to the vineyard which was the inheritance of his fathers is in striking contrast to the readiness with which many preachers and teachers of today give up all that their fathers held dear concerning the true vine. May we prove ourselves abiding branches in the vine and jealously guard the vineyard from all evil ones, even though it cost our life or our position to do this.

The garden of herbs for which the king said that he wanted the vineyard brings to mind the saying concerning evil-doers and workers of iniquity in Psalm xxxvii, 1-2, "They shall soon be cut down like the grass and wither as the green herb."

In Jezebel we see those who, like Herodias, do not scruple to take off the earth any one who happens to be in their way, true children of the devil, who has the power of death and was a murderer from the beginning (Heb. ii, 14; John viii, 44). "I will give thee the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite" (verse 7) were her words to Ahab, as if she owned it and Naboth, too, and could do as she pleased. Her true lord and master, the devil, once said to the Lord Jesus as he showed Him all the kingdoms of the world and the glory of them, "All these things will I give thee if thou wilt fall down and worship me" (Matt. iv, 8, 9). Because He would not worship him he proceeded to kill Him, which he finally did.

So Jezebel proceeded forthwith to kill Naboth, which she did by means of two sons of Belial, who lied, like their father, and others who did her bidding, afraid not to, I suppose, lest they, too, might lose their lives at the hands of this murderess. Note their false accusations of Naboth. "He blasphemed God and the king." What an awful association of the living and true God with one who represented the devil, and yet when Jesus Christ was on earth, God manifest in the flesh, his enemies told Him that He had a devil (John vii, 20; viii, 52; x, 20). They also raised up false witnesses against Him who laid to His charge things that He knew not (Ps. xxxv, 11). We are still in an enemy's country and cannot expect better treatment than our Master received and must remember that all who live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution (II Tim. iii, 12).

With what seeming triumph Jezebel says to Ahab: "Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth, * * * for Naboth is not alive, but dead" (verse 15). But the word of the Lord came again to Elijah with a message for Ahab and Jezebel: "Thus saith the Lord: In the place where dogs licked the blood of Naboth shall dogs lick thy blood, even thine. * * * The dogs shall eat Jezebel by the wall of Jezreel" (verses 19-23). And so it literally came to pass (22-23; I Kings ix, 30).

Whatever a man soweth that shall he also reap. Her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities. How much she hath glorified herself and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her (Gal. vi, 7; Rev. viii, 5-7). What an epitaph upon these two, "Ahab, who did sell himself to work wickedness in the sight of the Lord, whom Jezebel his wife stirred up" (verse 25). How far from peaceful the manner of their death, but what about their condition ever since? The words of Luke xvi, 23-26; Rev. xiv, 10, 11, are fearfully suggestive.

Prayer Meeting Topic For the Week Beginning Feb. 26, 1911.

Topic.—A missionary journey around the world.—II. Missions in the United States (south).—Isa. iv, 13. Edited by Rev. Sherman H. Doyle, D. D.

The southern part of the United States is a great missionary field. The southern people themselves have no need of the missionary. They are, perhaps, the most devout and conservative Christian people in our land. The need of the missions is not, therefore, a need of southerners, but in the south there are several classes of what we call in the mission work the exceptional populations of the United States. Of such classes three of the largest and most needy, so far as the gospel is concerned, are to be found in the south-land—the negroes, the mountain whites and the Mexicans in the United States. Each one of these classes is very large in numbers and is most morally and spiritually degraded.

1. The southern negroes of this race of people, then, is a population of 9,000,000 as against 1,000,000 in the north and these latter more widely distributed than are the multitudes of the south. Some states and especially some cities have a larger black population than white, and these were a standing menace to this great section of our country, once so great and powerful in all things, before the war plunged them into almost dire poverty. But nobly they went to work after the "carpetbaggers" had been forced out, and the south in a different way is again becoming richer and more prosperous. Sons and even daughters of southern parentage, who in the days before the war would have considered it a great indignity to have engaged in industrial business or in labor of any kind, with their sons and daughters, the present generation, have dropped the past and gone to work, and some of it hard work, to redeem the south and to build up a new south, and, moreover, they are meeting with wonderful success. Nor do they fear the darky, and perhaps if the north, even as missionaries, had remained out of the south and the negro had not been given a vote they themselves might have handled the vexed questions before them with far greater success than has so far been accomplished. They know the negro, how to keep him in his place, where he must be kept, when he outnumbers the white population, for a superior race, no matter how great the difference in population, will never be ruled by an inferior race. Brains always win in such a conflict. But being freed and given the right of franchise immediately changed his position, and in many thousands of occasions darky docility turned back almost to African savagery, with disastrous results both to white and black. But these millions have souls which need to be saved, and our greatest denomination began missionary work among them, consisting of elementary education, teaching various kinds of industries, and especially the gospel, which is still greatly needed regardless of our schools and churches.

2. The mountain whites. In the southern mountains in Virginia, West Virginia, Kentucky and Tennessee another peculiar population exists numbering 2,000,000 souls. These are the people who were descendants of the Scotch and Scotch Irish, who opposed slavery and lost their all in the Revolutionary war, were driven farther and farther back into the mountains until they were cut off from civilization and were like a lost race until a recent date. No people have needed the gospel more than they. Their moral degradation was almost complete, but the mountains were opened up, and these descendants of the sturdiest of a religious ancestry were found and their awful manner of life disclosed. Missionaries, day and Sabbath school teachers have poured in, and the miracle in American missions today is the improvement of this "lost race."

2. The Mexicans in the western part of the southern states. Here there live together Mexicans of the lowest caste, Indians and half breeds by the thousands. They are among the most reckless and toughest of any people in the United States. Yet they need the gospel and are getting it, but with no great effects except it be the children in the schools, the method most often used.

MODERN HAIR DRESSING

has played havoc with the tresses of the fair sex, and druggists everywhere comment on the fact that they are selling large quantities of sage for making the fashionable "sage tea," such as was used by our grandmothers for promoting the growth of their hair and restoring its natural color. The demand for this well-known herb for this purpose has been so great that one manufacturer has taken advantage of the fact, and has placed on the market an ideal "sage tea," containing sulphur, a valuable remedy for dandruff and scalp rashes and irritations. This preparation, which is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, is sold by all leading druggists for 50 cents and $1 a bottle, or will be sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price.

TO REVISE THE CONSTITUTION

Committee Reports Favorably On Governor's Bill.

MINORITY REPORT DEFEATED

By a Strictly Party Vote the Effort of the Republicans to Postpone Indefinitely Consideration of the Matter Was Defeated—Party Lines Disappear in the House on Inheritance Tax Bill.

Indianapolis, Feb. 24.—The Stotsenburg bill providing for the submission to the voters at the election of 1912 of a revised constitution was reported favorably by the senate committee on constitutional revision. The committee report favored the bill in the form in which it was originally introduced, but it is understood that several changes have been agreed on, and will be submitted as amendments to the bill on second or third reading. Senators Hanna and Halleck submitted a minority report favoring indefinite postponement, and as soon as this was read Senator Stotsenburg moved the previous question, thus shutting off debate. Republicans forced a roll call on this, and it was carried, 27 to 18.
The minority report was then defeated by the same vote, which was a strictly party vote.

Party Lines Disappear.
When the inheritance tax bill was handed down for third reading, and the bill was passed by a vote of 59 to 25, without debate. The bill is similar to one of two years ago which passed the house, but failed to pass the senate. The measure provides for a tax on inheritances, graded according to the amount inherited and to the relationship of the legatee to the testator, the farther removed the relationship the higher the rate of tax, and the larger the inheritance, the higher the rate.

The Maas loan shark bill, amended in such a way as to strengthen the measure and at the same time to prevent confusion as to banks or grain dealers who might be affected by its provisions, was passed by the house.
This bill provides that no higher interest rate than 8 per cent shall be charged on chattel loans and limits the commission of the broker to $3.

After an unsuccessful attempt to change the township trustees bill so as to make it apply only to townships containing incorporated cities of 5,000 population or more, the bill was passed in its original form. The bill provides that township advisory boards may, in their annual meeting in September, appropriate money from the township fund to pay the trustee's office rent, to pay for clerk hire, and to defray the cost of other items of expense when in the opinion of the advisory board members such an appropriation is advisable. The measure was drawn especially to take care of such situations as now exist in Center township, Marion county, where the trustee, Henry C. Schroeder, closed his office because the advisory board could not, under the law, appropriate money for office rent.

Decide on Salary Increases.
Several salary increases were decided on by the senate sitting as a committee of the whole, as follows: Salary of state librarian, increased from $1,800 a year to $2,500; deputy clerk of the supreme and appellate courts, from $1,800 to $2,400; record clerk of the supreme and appellate

ONE BIG FOOL

But He Doesn't Live in Rushville No
Read the Republican.

A man in Connecticut gave a doctor, a specialist in catarrh, $50 to cure him of this common yet most obnoxious disease.

The specialist gave him a bottle of medicine and told him to use it.

The fool took the medicine home, took one dose, put it on a shelf and made no further effort to follow instructions.

Three months later with the medicine still on the shelf he told a friend that the specialist was a fake; that he had paid him $50 and still had catarrh.

HYOMEI (pronounce it High-ome) won't cure catarrh if you don't breathe it; it will if you breathe it regularly.

Furthermore you don't need to give a catarrh specialist you don't need to give you of catarrh the specialist is yet to be born who can write a better prescription than HYOMEI.

F. B. Johnson & Co. and druggists everywhere guarantee HYOMEI to cure catarrh or money back. A complete outfit which consists of a bottle of HYOMEI a hard rubber inhaler and simple instructions for use costs only $1.00. Separate bottles of HYOMEI if afterwards needed costs but 50 cents.

of rheumatism anywhere, the chances are almost 100 to 1 that your kidneys are clogged with body poisons of various kinds.

Bladder troubles, rheumatism, Bright's disease and so on, come from bad, dying kidneys. They can't throw out the poisons.

According to present plans, the Proctor liquor regulation bill will come out in the house for second reading and amendment this afternoon, and indications are that there will be a warm session. The committee on public morals, which has had the bill in charge, has found it impossible thus far to get the Democratic members together on the provisions of the bill. It was said at the statehouse that forty of the sixty Democrats are opposed to the scale of license fees as proposed in the bill. The forty favor a reduction, contending that the saloon license fees proposed in the bill are too high.

Some other Democrats insist that the figures set out in the bill are proper. Still others are insisting on a higher license fee, some of them going as high as $1,000.

It is said that the Republicans of the house have agreed to stand solidly in favor of a $1,000 license fee, and that they will join with high license Democrats so to amend the Proctor bill.

Whether the members can agree on a bill that will be satisfactory to a majority of the members of the house is still the question, and it probably will be settled this afternoon. There is some talk among the members of the legislature to the effect that if the session closes without the passage of a liquor regulation bill, Governor Marshall may call a special session to enact such a law immediately after adjournment.

VOTE ON THE LORIMER CASE AGAIN DELAYED

This Time the Opposition Fear to Force Action.

Washington, Feb. 24.—For nearly four hours yesterday afternoon Senator Beveridge occupied the floor in the senate in an address on the Lorimer case. He had not concluded at 5 o'clock, when the senate went into executive session, and gave notice that he would resume his speech today. Efforts to get an agreement on a date for a vote on the Lorimer case failed, due to the objections of several senators. The situation indicates that an organized effort is being made by those opposed to Lorimer to put the case over into the next session of congress, realizing that if a vote were taken now he would retain his seat.

Senator Borah asked that the senate agree today to vote on the resolution for the popular election of senators, but this promptly was objected to by Senator Heyburn of Idaho.

The senate went into executive session shortly after 5 o'clock to consider the Japanese treaty, and after considering the treaty for more than two hours adjourned without acting upon it.

Hearings were held before the finance committee on the reciprocity bill, after which the committee announced that the hearings had closed and an agreement was reached by which the finance committee will meet today to consider the matter of a report on the McCall bill embodying the features of the Canadian reciprocal trade agreement.

The conference report on the river and harbor bill was agreed to by the senate.

TWO IMPORTANT COURT RULINGS

Sunday Base Ball Saved and Sheriff's Fees Killed.

SETTLES CONTENTED CASES

By the Decision of the State Supreme Court the Sunday Baseball Law of 1909 is Held to Be Constitutional,
While the Sheriff's "in and out" Fee Law is Declared to Be Unconstitutional.

Indianapolis, Feb. 24.—In reversing the judgment in the case of the state against Charles C. Carr, the Indiana supreme court decided that the Sunday baseball law is constitutional and baseball may lawfully be played on Sunday. The opinion was written by Judge Cox and concurred in by Judges Morris and Jordan, while Judge Myers wrote a dissenting opinion in which Judge Monks concurred.

Carr, who was manager of the Indianapolis baseball club last year, was charged by affidavit with a violation of the act of 1909, which forbids people to labor or follow their "usual avocation" on Sunday, with certain exceptions, which include playing baseball between the hours of 1 o'clock p. m. and 6 o'clock p. m., and not less than 1,000 feet distant from any church or hospital." He was convicted, and after moving an arrest of judgment and for a new trial he appealed, and the case has hung fire for many months. Another important decision of the supreme court affirms Judge Remster's ruling that the in and out fee for sheriffs is unconstitutional.

The higher court ruling will save the state $100,000 and Marion county $16-000, payment of this amount to the county clerk and Sheriff Woessner being held up pending the court action.

The decision comes on a suit to enjoin Sheriff Woessner from collecting the fees filed shortly after the legislative session of 1909 by Henry W. Bullock.

The bill giving the sheriffs of the state a fee of 25 cents for each prisoner entering the jail, and 25 cents for each prisoner discharged, was passed by the session of 1907, but reached Governor Hanly too late for action.

He vetoed the bill and it was held over according to law for presentation at the next session. The next session was the Hanly special session, and on the ground that the special session did not constitute a session, the bill was not presented until the regular session of 1909.

It was passed and became a law without being subject to veto by Governor Marshall.

The supreme court held with Judge Remster that the law was unconstitutional because not presented at the special session, which, it held, constituted the next session within the meaning of the law.

Sullivan, Ind., Feb. 24.—A burglar entered the home of John Brock, a farmer living twelve miles northwest of Sullivan, and stole $1,085 from a dresser drawer. Brock had drawn the money from the bank with the intention of using it in making purchases of stock for his farm. Two hundred dollars belonging to his brother, who had come to spend the night, was also taken.

ple do.

Read a case of it:

George Priest, 223 West Third street, Rushville, Ind., says: "I was bothered by attacks of kidney trouble for several years and as time passed my condition became worse. There was a dull pain directly over my kidneys and I had spells of dizziness and weakness. My sight often became blurred and I knew that something must be done. Three years ago Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to

J. L. PETZ TALKED TO COMMISSIONERS

Former State Statistician Made Plea
Before Joint Meeting of Three Boards Here.

NO ACTION ON ROAD BUSINESS

J. L. Petz, superintendent of Indiana Home for dependent children, appeared before the joint meeting of the commissioners of Shelby, Hancock and Rush counties, here yesterday afternoon, making a plea for the better treatment of orphan children.

Mr. Petz was State statistician up until the last election, when he was defeated for re-election. While in office he took much interest in the laboring class and established a free employment bureau in connection with the State office. He was tendered the position, which he holds now, as soon as he retired from the public office.

The commissioners of the three counties met here yesterday afternoon primarily to consider the construction of a county-line road, which will touch all three counties and to accept the viewers' report. Some discussion arose as to who should pay for the several bridges which will be necessary in the building of the road. The road runs through Ripley and Posey townships in this county. The matter was referred back to the viewers and engineer, who will file another report next Thursday.

all "in and out" fees which he may have retained during his term.

There is one local case, however, in which it will have no effect. The State Accounting Board has charged William Bainbridge, former sheriff, up with a shortage of over six hundred dollars and then has brought suit for five thousand dollars to collect the sum which is nearly ten times larger than the amount of the alleged discrepancy. The whole amount is "in and out" fees retained. Were it not for the statutory limits it is probable that the board could compel Mr. Bainbridge to refund the total, since the decision yesterday. But all of the amount, with the exception of about one hundred dollars, was retained by the former sheriff more than six years ago. He has been willing to pay the amount of fees retained since the statutory limit expired.

The legislature of 1907 passed the law in question which provides, among other fees, that the sheriff shall charge a fee of 25 cents for committing prisoners to jail, and 25 cents for discharging them.

Henry W. Bullock, as a taxpayer of Marion county, brought this action to prevent the payment to Sheriff Woessner of these fees known as the "in and the out fees," alleging that the law of 1909 was not valid from the fact that it was passed by the legislature of 1907 during the last days of the session and was vetoed by Governor Hanly and returned to the secretary of the State within the five days provided for in such cases, together with his objections or veto.

The Constitution provides that the secretary of the State shall present the bill, together with the Governor's veto to the next legislature.

Governor Hanly thereafter called the special session of the legislature in 1908, which passed the county local option law, but the secretary of State did not send the sheriff's fee bill to that legislature, but waited until the regular session of 1909, to which he sent the vetoed bill which was passed, among the first bills passed, as the acts of 1909.

Judge Remster held that the Constitution required that vetoed bill should be returned to the next session of the legislature, whether that session was the regular session of the next legislature or a special session of the legislature which originally passed the bill, and therefore the bill not being passed over Governor Hanly's veto by the special session, it had lost its vitality and could not be enacted by the legislature of 1909 without being introduced as a bill and sent to the Governor in the regular course of enacting a new law.

Judge Jordan's dissenting opinion holds that the negligence of the secretary of State should not be allowed to defeat the will of the legislature.

GETS ADDITIONAL $5000

S. and S. O. Home Profits by Appropriation in Senate.

Thanks to E. E. Moore of Connersville, senator from this district, the Senate in Indianapolis yesterday added an additional $5,000 to the maintenance fund of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home at Knightstown, making the total maintenance for that institution $100,000 instead of $95,000, as the bill provided. This was inserted on motion of Senator Moore, Republican, and was adopted after it was explained that the Senate had passed a bill admitting the grandchildren of civil war veterans and the children of the Spanish-American war veterans to the institution. This bill was passed before the Upper House resolved itself into the committee of the whole to consider the appropriations bills.
